The Friends of St. Aloysius Foundation strengthens Catholic education by raising funds to benefit the Religious Education and Youth Ministry programs of St. Aloysius Church and the teachers of St. Aloysius School. Friends of St. Aloysius provides funding for teachers' professional development and stipends for those who manage enrichment programs. By providing grants to the parish Religious Education and Youth Ministry programs, Friends enriches the spiritual learning of over 1,200 children, grades 1 through 12, throughout the parish. The Foundation also has an endowment fund to help ensure future support of these programs.
